

Counsel will return to the office on June 14, 2023.

5. The undersigned would prefer to participate in the scheduling conference rather than have another lawyer in the office pinch hit.

6. Under the circumstances, defendants respectfully submit that good cause exists to continue the scheduling conference.

7. The undersigned contacted plaintiff's counsel, and counsel does not object to the requested continuance.

WHEREFORE, defendants respectfully request that the Court postpone the scheduling conference until June 14, 2023 or later, at the convenience of the Court.
